25X1A [REDACTED] Comment: Although this report contains information which duplicates 25X1A that in [REDACTED] it is [REDACTED] is dated a year later than the previous report. It is distributed to confirm the previous report and to indicate that the postal regulations in Latvia remained unchanged, at least up to September 1951.

Correspondence with Foreign Countries

1. There are no official restrictions on sending letters abroad from Latvia.
2. Letters do not have to be sent by registered post or delivered to a post office in person by the sender but may be dropped into any post box. The only requirement is that the sender's name and address should be written on the back of the envelope.

Correspondence Inside Latvia

3. It is generally assumed that persons sending letters abroad or receiving such correspondence are recorded by the security authorities. 1.
4. Letters addressed to places in Latvia or in the U.S.S.R. do not have to show the sender's name or address.
5. As a rule postal traffic inside Latvia is normal and it takes ordinary internal
